Jami Yazdani

Helping mission-driven organizations lead more impactful projects, teams, and planning

Jami Yazdani is a project management and planning consultant with a proven track record of leading diverse collaborations, facilitating consensus, and keeping (even reluctant) teams on track. She is the Founder of Yazdani Consulting & Facilitation, offering leaders in mission-driven organizations realistic strategies, actionable consulting, and expert support to bring clarity, order, and impact to their projects, teams, and planning.

Jami is a certified Project Management Professional (PMP) and Disciplined Agile Scrum Master (DASM) with over 16 years of experience managing a portfolio of innovative projects and planning initiatives. Over a diverse career, spanning roles in business, libraries, and public higher education, Jami effectively led planning, championed change, and empowered staff.

Jami is based in the Boulder-Denver area of Colorado. She is available for speaking and training opportunities virtually and across the globe and for podcasts and interviews.
